

The City of Covina retains a variety of city records on file that are available to the public. The City Clerk Department keeps the majority of the city records, including: ordinances, resolutions and minutes of the Covina City Council.

Please note that birth certificates, death records, and marriage licenses are held at the Los Angeles County Registrar Recorder's Office and can be obtained by calling (562) 462-2137. Click here to go to the County Registrar Recorder web site.

To request a public record from Covina, please use this form . For more information about records available at the City of Covina, please click here or call the City Clerk Department during normal business hours at (626) 384-5430.